

I hope that the FCC will act to prevent the Sinclair Network from airing its Stolen Honor program, or alternatively require Sinclair to broadcast an equally one-sided pro-John Kerry program alongside it. Networks that use the public airwaves simply shouldn't broadcast free program-length advertisements for political candidates. It's a betrayal of the public trust, and I hope you will take it very seriously.

Thank you.